E. Oakes, to represent those counties in the Constitutional Convention called under act of March 23d, 1867. General Reynolds also issued an order containing instructions to the Board of Registers appointed to conduct the revision of registration, in which he directs all persons who ever held office under the Federal or any State Government and afterwards engaged in rebellion, or who gave aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States, to be excluded from registration. He further says no amnesty or pardon entitles the applicant to register, and also that no one who held an office or a position of profit or honor under the Confederate States, or either of the States in rebellion, are entitled to register. He says, however, that the removal of the disability by Congress entitles the applicant to register, unless disfranchised for crime, bribery, perjury, false swearing, subordination of perjury, offering a bribe and accepting a bribe, are the list of crimes for which persons are disfranchised.

Bombardment of Jeremie—Salnave Demands its Surrender—Reported Outrages by Lopez.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The steamships Russia, from Liverpool, and Allemania, from Bremen, have arrived. Port au Prince dates, of the 9th inst., announce the bombardment of Jeremie on the 6th. Notice had been given the foreign consuls to leave town within six days, but they refused to heed the notice, and remained. Salnave demanded the surrender of the place, or he would burn it. He proposed to attack by land and sea. The water supply had been cut off, and the women portion of the inhabitants had revolted, because General Rouzier, the commander, would not surrender.

Rio Janeiro and Buenos Ayres letters say Lopez is reported to have committed the grossest outrages since the discovery of a conspiracy in his camp. Large numbers of the principal men of the town of Asencion, whom he believed to be involved in the plot against him were summarily executed. Several foreigners who took refuge from his fury in the U. S. Legation were dragged out, among them the Portuguese Consul. His two brothers and all his married sisters have been imprisoned by him, and supposed murdered or immured alive in his numerous dungeons.

Decision of Judge McCann Upon the Admission to Citizenship of honorably Discharged Soldiers and Sailors from the Service of the United States—Seymour to Stump Pennsylvania—Suicide—Panic in Wall Street—Fatal Stabbing and Burning Cases.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 21.—In the Superior Court, yesterday, Judge McCann rendered a highly important opinion upon the application of James Stewart, an ex-seaman of the United States, to be admitted as a citizen of the United States. Judge McCann holds that the act of Congress does not in terms extend the privilege to honorably discharged sailors, but only to such as have served in and been honorably discharged from armies of the United States. The Court will put a liberal construction upon the act, according to its spirit, and admit sailors as well as soldiers to naturalization.

THE ISTHMUS CANAL.

At a meeting of the corporation of the Isthmus Canal Company, held Tuesday evening, at the residence of Peter Cooper, the Company was organized by electing Peter Cooper as President, and Frederick A. Conkling as Secretary. Hon William H. Seward and Attorney General Evarts were present and took an active part in the proceedings. The feasibility of the proposed canal was thoroughly discussed. The highest estimate of cost was one hundred million dollars.

The following Commissioners were appointed to obtain subscriptions to the stock of the Company: Wm. T. Coleman, Marshall O. Roberts, C. K. Garrison and Richardson Schell. The charts prepared by F. N. Perry were exhibited during the discussion. Hon. Wm. H. Seward made remarks in substance as follows:

Mr. Seward referred to this canal as the most feasible channel of trade between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. It had at an early date been noticed as a transit route, and its construction would cut off the circuitous routes around the Cape; making a shorter channel for commerce. The commerce of the Atlantic Coast will be turned Eastward across the Atlantic, through the Mediterranean and Red Seas, and into the Indian Ocean. It would be a reproach to American Commerce should we oppose this great improvement, which must be immensely profitable and useful.

In conclusion, he assured those present, that the President would go forward with renewed zeal and vigor, on the assurance that had been given them, that the city of New York had named the men who would undertake the achievement, and who stood ready to furnish the one hundred millions needed for the cost of the enterprize. Acknowledging the courtesies he had received, he stated that if he should be able to identify his name with theirs in the prosecution of this great enterprise, he should feel more assured hereafter than ever, that he had not lived altogether in vain.

The officers of the Mikado attempted to arrest them, which resulted in a scuffle, pistols being fired. The offenders escaped.

RELIGIOUS.

The Episcopal Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 21, 1868.

In the Protestant Episcopal Convention to-day, Tazwell Taylor moved that the papers in the matter of Assistant Bishop, which had been sent to the House of Bishops, be returned to this body, as a motion to reconsider the Canon was now before them. Adopted.

The Committee on Canons reported in favor of amending section 3, of Canon 9, title 2, by erasing the words "of the Church," after Presiding Bishop. Report adopted.

Judge Battle, from the Committee on Canons, to whom was recommitted a new Canon relative to the consecration of churches, as previously reported, said the amendment had been made so as to meet the peculiarities of each State. The Canon was read as follows:

First. "That the form of Consecration shall not be used for a new church till free from debt or liability, and that the title to the land is properly secured according to the laws of the State in which it is situated.

Second. "Such building or land not to be encumbered by mortgage without the consent of the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese.

Third. "A Church or Chapel once consecrated, to be kept separate from all unhallowed or worldly common uses is not to be taken down without the consent of the ecclesiastical authority."

The report was laid on the table.

A message was received from the House of Bishops nonconcurring in the proposed alteration of canon 9, title 1, extending the period of probation of clergymen seeking admission from other churches. A message was also received announcing the passage of the resolutions in favor of the establishment of high schools for the education of young people of the church of both sexes at rates within reach of all. The Bishop also announced that they had concurred in the resolution adding another cycle to the prayer book.

The Committee on Canons reported it inexpedient to amend article 4 of the Constitution in relation to the right of Bishops to perform Episcopal duties for each other, and asked to be relieved from further consideration of the matter. The request was granted and the Committee also asked leave to withdraw the Canon on Federal Councils in order to add another clause which was granted.

The Committee on General Theological Seminary, reported names of candidates for trustees of that institution for the next three years, who were accordinly elected. The House then took up a special order for the election of Rev. Mr. Morris to the Bishopric of Ooregon and Washington Territories. Rev. Mr. Morris was unanimously elected.

Rev. Dr. DeKoven of Wisconsin, from the Committee on Christian Education, submitted a long report, showing the gratifying condition of the work of Christian education in various Theological Schools and Seminaries of the Church.

Accompanying the report of Dr. DeKoven, were six resolutions, which, in view of the destitution in Southern States, recommended a joint commission to raise funds for the establishment of schools, giving said Commission power to appoint local committees in each Diocese to carry out the work; also, recommending the appointment of a joint committee to take the subject of Theological school and study, and to report to the next General Convention; recommending the establishment of grammar and christian schools. If it was practical such might be opened, to obtain economy, in Chapel school houses so as to plant the church in cities and towns, where not already established. In these schools the children may be instructed during the week, and meet for divine worship with their parents on Sunday.

The resolutions also recommended the appointment of a Committee on Christian Education in every Diocese, to consider the best means of establishing Christian schools, and recommends to churchmen the prayerful consideration of the subject of a training-house for male and female teachers, to go where needed by the Church and look for no pay beyond maintenance.

The resolutions were made a special order for to-morrow.

Rev. Dr. Mahan, M. D., asked leave, on behalf of the Committee on the Russo-Greek question, to have their report printed before being presented to the House. Granted.

A long printed memorial from Presbyterian Ministers was handed to the Secretary, and was soon in the hands of the deputies, remonstrating against the superior favor shown Methodist brethren in opening the door of admission to the Episcopal Communion. Indeed, continues the memorial, it would seem there is, on the part of some of your members, a much greater inclination to accommodate the Greek and Roman churches than the several branches of Reformed church which you are connected with.

The motion made on Tuesday to reconsider the action of the House upon the Canan relative to Missionary Bishops, came up and was rejected.

Rev. Mr. Howe, of Virginia, from the Committee on Canons, reported again the proposed Canon on federal councils, with an additional proviso, that nothing contained in it shall be construed as forbidding the federate council from taking any such action as they may deem necessary to insure such legislative enactments as the common interests of the Church in the State may require.

B. J. Barbour, of Virginia, from the Committee on Clerical Support, reported a resolution requesting the House of Bishops to present prominently, in a pastoral letter, the sufferings and wants of the clergy, and recommending on the part of this House a collection annually in each parish for the purpose. After several speeches had been made, the subject was referred back for further practical suggestions, and two clerical members were added to the Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Mulcahey, of Massachusetts, from the Committee on Provincial System, reported and submitted for adoption a draft of a Canon for the establishment of a system of Federate Councils and Provincial Synod.

R. R. Ruggles, in a speech, favored federate councils, but opposed provincial synods and on his motion the report was tabled.

Messages were received from the House of Bishops concurring in the selection of Baltimore as a place for the next Convention, and nonconcurring in the proposed amendments to article 5 of the Constitution, and asking for a Committee of Conference. Adjourned.

NEWARK, N. J., October 21.—The New School Presbyterian Synod of New York and New Jersey organized yesterday, with Rev. Dr. Newell as Moderator.

The Old School Synod of New Jersey also organized, Dr. Reed as Moderator. They to-day adopted a resolution that the agreement now existing between the two branches is such as to warrant reunion without unnessary delay.

Both Synods accepted an invitation to attend the inauguration of Dr. McCosh as President of Princeton College.

EARTHQUAKE.

Disastrous Earthquake in California—Twelve Shocks During the Day—Houses Thrown Down and Lives Lost—Business Nearly Suspended.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—This evening the streets were crowded with an excited multitude discussing the particulars of a disastrous earthquake. Twelve shocks were felt during the day. The general direction was northerly and southerly, though some descriptions give it a rotary motion. The greatest damage extends in a belt several hundred feet wide, running about northwest and southeast, commencing near the Custom House and ending at Folsom street wharf, injuring and demolishing some twelve buildings in its course. On the corner of Market and First streets, the ground opened and a fissure several inches wide and forty or fifty feet long opened. Other places where the ground opened water was forced above the surface. The City Hall may be considered an entire wreck. Courts all adjourned. The prisoners were taken from the Station House to the county jail. All the patients of the United States Hospital were removed from the building, which was declared unsafe. The chimney of the U. S. Mint is badly damaged and the establishment closed for repairs. Hager's type foundry suffers greatly. The Lincoln School House was badly damaged, and the large statue in front of the building quite ruined. The General Delivery Postoffice has temporarily suspended. The San Francisco Gas Works suffered severely, and the chimney being thrown over fell through the roof. The Mason Woolen Mills were considerably damaged. The large chimney of the sugar refinery on Eighth street was badly cracked, the gable end of the girls' side of the deaf and dumb and blind institution fell in, crushing through the ceiling, and many chimneys in the southern part of the city were thrown down. No one was seriously injured by them. Only four lives are as yet known to be lost, although numbers are seriously injured by the falling debris.

The waters of the Bay were perfectly smooth at the time of the shock, and no perceptible disturbance took place. The shock was felt aboard the shipping in the harbor, as if the vessels had struck on a rock. The earthquake was severe in the interior. Heavy shocks were felt at Sacramento and Stockton. The Costa and Alameda Company's building was thrown down, and several lives were lost.

The Mare Island Navy Yard experienced two heavy shocks. Several Chinese were thrown down, and some buildings considerably shaken, but no serious damage was done, and no was injured. At Vallego chimneys were demolished, but no serious injury occurred. At Redwood city, the large brick Court House is little better than a wreck, and all the country offices moved out. At Marysville, light shocks were felt. At Grass Valley the shock was severe. There was a light shock at Donarp. Throughout the day business was nearly all suspended in this city, and none but retail establishments were open. The Chamber of Commerce held a meeting today and resolved to telegraph to the Chambers of New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, London, Paris and Hamburg, an account of the disaster. Another shock was just felt at seven P. M.

LOUISIANA.

Adjournment of the Legislature—Departure of Col. Pope's Remains.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—The Legislature adjourned sine die last night. Among the last acts of the House was the reconsidation of the vote sustaining the Governor's veto of the five million city bond bill, and the passage of the bill over the veto; also the ejection of another white member elected by over 300 majority, and the installation in his place of a negro. A resolution was adopted giving mileage per diem for the whole session to a number of Radical contestants of seats of sitting Democratic members whose cases have not yet been decided.

Some action was taken in the Senate in similar cases. In the Senate, when the veto of the city bond bill came up, a Senator caused to be read a communication offering $200,000 as a bribe for the passage of the bill over the veto. It was also stated a further sum of $50,000 had been offered. The vote was then taken and the veto sustained by 19 to 9.

The body of Col. Pope, late Sheriff of St. Mary's Parish, went North this evening by the steamer Nicholas Longworth. The body was escorted to the steamer by a number of ex-United States soldiers, officers and soldiers now on duty here, including Generals Rosseau and Buchanan. Pope was Colonel of the 23d Illinois Regiment, instead of the 29th, as stated.

CHINA.

Minister Brown at Pekin—The Burlingame Mission Denounced—Anti-Foreign Riots—British Consul Shot—Fire at Hong Kong, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, October 21.—J. Ross Brown, United States Minister of China, arrived at Shanghai on September 5th, and left next day for Pekin via. Teusin.

The Burlingame mission treaty was freely discussed in the China press, and has given general dissatisfaction on account of containing no new concessions.

Anti-foreign riots occurred at Yangchow, near Chingiang. The mob burned and destroyed some missionary premises, and attempted to murder the inmates.

The British Consul at Shanghai, in Her Majesty's steamer, Rinaldo, has been shot. An inquiry into the matter demands reparation.

The British Consul induced the Chinese authorities to protect travelers in the Province. The recent violent opposition has considerably abated.

A fire occurred at Hong Kong on the 8th of August, destroying a large amount of property.

Captain Johnson, of the British gunboat Bustard, fired on the city of Choochi, on the river Han, doing considerable damage.

Loss of Life in Fishing Boats.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, October 21.—In the gale of Saturday, six men who were fishing in dores, and belonging to fishing vessels in the harbor, were drowned, and a seventh knocked overboard.

SEYMOUR.

Seymour Swinging Around the Circle—He Propounds Conundrums to His Audience.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SYRACUSE, N. Y., October 21.—Governor Seymour, on his way West, stopped here for dinner, and made a short speech to a large crowd at the Syracuse House. He thanked his friends for their attention, and he expressed the fervent hope that however the conflict in which we are engaged may end, the result shall be such as to preserve the Union, elevate and restore the honor of our government, so it shall prove to be a blessing to all the citizens of the land.

ROCHESTER, October 21.—Governor Seymour arrived here at five o'clock this evening, and was received by a large gathering of citizens. He was accompanied by the Hon. Francis Keenan, of Utica. They went to the Osborne House, and at eight o'clock were escorted to the Rink by a large cavalcade and torch-light procession. The Rink was filled with people.

Gov. Seymour said: Nearly four years ago the war which ravaged our land ceased; nearly four years ago the affairs of this country were confided to the administration of the authorities. We found at the close of the contest that a large section of our country had been disorganized it its industry, its social structure, and in its moral condition. As the result of that war if we turned from the South that portion which had been overcome by the valor of our troops and took into consideration the condition of the country, we found it burdened by an enormous debt; we found that our carrying trade had been swept from the oceans of the world; we found the business of our country perplexed by all the uncertainties which overhung its future business pursuits; we meet now for the purpose of determining whether those who have administered the affairs of the United States during the past four years have governed it wisely and well. They come before the people of this country, asking to be reinstated in power. They say they have so controlled its interests that they are entitled to the confidence of the people. They claim their measures have been wise and judicious, and that they have tended to advance the interests and welfare of the Republic; in their Convention they congratulated the people upon the success of their scheme of reconstruction. The question now presented to the voters of this country is simply this: Are you satisfied with the conduct of those who have conducted the affairs of the country? Are they entitled to your confidence? Have they so administered your finances that your taxes have been lightened as they might have been? Have they relieved the labor of the country from the great burdens which rested on it? Can the business men of the country, who constituted its capital, say that they repose such confidence in the wisdom of those who now administer its affairs, that if they shall again be placed in power they can go on with confidence in their transactions. The answer of this great audience is no, and I believe it is the answer of the people. This country will be, no, the day was, when the American people were proud when they were counted among the foremost nations of the earth as a people largely engaged in the commerce of the world. We do not find that this great subject has, during the past three years, attracted even the attention of those who administer the affairs of our land. Whichever way we look, whatever class we address, whatever individual interest we consider, we find at this time that the policy of the Government is such that labor is depressed, business is perplexed, and the future is full of uncertainty. Now, how has the Administration failed? Why have they come so far short of the fulfillment of their duties, that at the end of nearly four years of peace we find ourselves still embarrassed, hampered and opposed by that same condition of things which we found at the close of the late war. We claimed in the National Convention that they had a right to congratulate the people of the land upon the success of the reconstruction scheme. They claim that our financial condition has been improved; they claimed that the heavy burden of debt which rests upon this land was about to be lightened. Thus far in the canvass these claims have been discussed. Their speakers, as well as those who spoke for the Democratic party, have been engaged in laying before you their views upon the subjects.

Mr. Seymour continued his speech to the length of an half hour's talk, but was quite guarded in his expressions.

Extensive Fraud.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WATERTOWN, N. Y., October 21.—An extensive fraud is being perpetrated throughout the country, and especially in the West, by negotiating forged drafts purporting to be drawn by the banking house of Howard & Baker, of Watertown, and signed by C. E. Helmer, Cashier. The drafts are neatly engraved and executed. These drafts to the amount of several thousand dollars have been sent here for collection. There has never been any such banking house in this village.

Reduction of Bail—Forged Naturalization Papers—Arms Shipped South.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY October 21.—Judge Cardozo, to-day, granted a motion for a reduction in the bail of Putnam W. Brown, charged with complicity in robbing the Merchants Union Express Company.

Benjamin B. Rosenbery was, to-day, arraigned before the United States Commissioner, charged with having been engaged in making forged naturalization papers. The Deputy United States Attorney also stated that Rosenbery had been engaged in this for several days, at No. 6, Centre street, and had sold hundreds and thousands of them. The papers being fully made out, and having the seal of the competent court attached to them—a blank space being left for the insertion of any name desired—and great quantities of them having been sent up the river and into the interior of the State, were sold at three dollars a head. Examination is fixed for to-morrow, and defendant held in the sum of $1,000 bail, Charles Donahu giving the bonds.

The Sun says: "Several individuals in New York are now engaged in purchasing and shipping arms to the Southern States. One of them is from Texas, one from Georgia, two from South Carolina, and two or three others from Alabama, Louisiana and Tennessee. The articles they are purchasing are mainly revolvers and repeating or breach-loading rifles. All the models of muzzle-loading weapons are discarded, and the purchasers are understood to prefer short barrels to long ones. Ten thousand revolvers were sent South in one consignment three weeks ago. Shipments of twenty thousand, twelve hundred and five hundred revolvers are unpleasantly frequent. The Charleston steamer last week took a dozen cases of hardware, which was really a lot of breech-loading rifles, designed for private parties in that city. One dealer in fire arms admits he has more orders than he can fill for the present, but professes not to know where the weapons he sells are going. All these facts point rather strikingly to a very disturbed condition of affairs at the South.

Railroad Conductors' Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, October 21.—The Railroad Conductors' Convention re-assembled this morning. Several new delegates were enrolled. A communication from Frank B. Lord, agent of the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad, extending the courtesies of that road to the members of the Convention, was received, and thanks returned for the same. Also a communication from Samuel L. Smith, in behalf of General P. W. Strader, inviting the members to a free ride through the city and suburbs in the Cincinnati, Omnibus Company's vehicles, was received, and the thanks of the Convention returned.

The report of the Committee on Articles of Association was made, and each article taken up separately, the first declaring that this organization shall be known as the United States Railroad Conductors' Life Insurance Company, and was, after some debate, adopted. Freight, as well as passenger conductors, are included in this title.

The other articles declare that the Association shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, the two latter offices to be filled by one person, whose office shall be centrally located, and who shall receive one hundred dollars per month for his services; that the President shall call a meeting annually in October, or oftener if necessary; that there shall be an Executive Committee of three members, who shall reside at the same place as the Secretary and Treasurer, to whom all claims against the Association shall be referred, and no person shall become a member of the Association who is not a man of good moral character and has had an experience of one year as a conductor.

Wade Hampton on Secession and Reconstruction.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 21.—A letter from Wade Hampton, in reply to one from a Wisconsin lawyer, is published. He considers secession dead forever, and has done so since the close of the war, and is in favor of giving to the negro equal civil rights with white men, and suffrage based on qualifications, in which he has no doubt he is sustained by a vast majority of the white citizens of the State. He also says: We regard the reconstruction acts as unconstitutional, but look for their overthrow by constitutional agencies and peaceful remedies alone, received through the Supreme Court of the United States, by whose decision we are prepared to stand.

INDIGNATION MEETING AGAINST RECENT MURDERS IN THE STATE.

A meeting was held this evening to express indignation at the recent murders committed in this State. Mayor Clark presided, and speeches were made by Senator Sawyer, Collector Mackey, and others. The International Boat Race.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., October 21.—In the boat race to-day the St. John's crew beat the Wards' four oared crew in a six mile race forty lengths. Time—thirty-nine minutes, twenty-eight and three-fourth seconds. SEYMOUR'S LAMENT.

BY J. WILLIAM POPE.

AIR—Oh, Boys, Carry me 'Long.

O, what shall I do?
This radical draft is so cold,
And the White House door is barred evermore,
By Grant the fearless and bold.
All over the South,
They said I should sit in the chair;
But Vermont and Maine they started a train,
Which passed me before I got there.
O, Blair, why were you there,
With Hampton, the murderous chief?
You very well knew that Southern crew
Would plunge me in sorrow and grief.

Where now are my friends,
Who rallied at Abraham's call?
I thought they would come, at the roll of my drum,
And make me their chieftain this fall!
Where now are the gains
They promised the Keystone should send?
Alas, on that day 'twas all 'tother way,
And now I have never a friend!
O Blair, why were you there,
With Forrest, the butcher, so brave?
'Twere better for us, that you and that cuss,
Had both been a gentleman's slave!

Now they intimate
'Twere better that I should back out!
Then where would I be? Alone on the sea
Of trouble you've all heard about!
O, what can be done?
Why don't they withdraw General Grant?
And give me a show, for my bacon you know
Will never be worth a red cent.
O, Blair, why were you there,
With Semmes, the pirate, so true?
You've left me at last, alone in the blast,
The Devil intended for you!

Farewell to the "Boys,"
Who voted as oft as they could;
From now, nevermore they'll hear of Seymour,
For soon I'll be lost in the flood!
Farewell to you all,
I'm ruined, my spirits are low!
Our cause is as dead, as Jim's rooster's head,
Which coony has twisted you know.
O, Blair, stay where you are,
Your family name is a curse!
I'm sad enough now, your presence, I vow,
Would make me a thousand times worse!

OCTOBER 19, 1868.

EPHEMERIS.

—Dog races are popular in California.

—Doctor Livingston is supposed to be at Zanzibar.

—Vallandigham is said to have become a Roman Catholic.

—A Russian Princess has opened a cigar store at Moscow.

—Gen. Longstreet is in New York. So is John Quincy Adams.

—Jefferson is soon going back to London to play Rip Van Winkle.

—Highwaymen rob the market gardeners coming into Nashville, Tenn.

—Santa Anna, Jr., a son of the old man, is a Bandit chieftain in Mexico.

—Longfellow, at last accounts, was busy doing the Paris picture-galleries.

—Tennyson praises Klopstock's Messiah as one of the grandest epics extant.

—Queen Isabella had thirty-five years of reign, and a very stormy time it was.

—Ristori's daughter has refused to marry a handsome young Wall street banker.

—Two of Baron Haussman's new streets in Paris are called Faraday and Brunel.

—Swedenborg's complete works have just been published for the first time in Swedish.

—Booth has a new crown which he wears when he plays Richard, and it cost him $3,000.

—The Austrian Field Marshal who commanded at the disastrous battle of Magenta, has just died.

—Julia Ebergenyi has probably heard of Allen's feats in water street, for she pretends to be converted.

—The New York World says the bridge of the war Democrats to the Republican party is Pierrepontoon.

—The falls of Idaho are said to be very nearly equal to those of Niagara, and to be quite as difficult to shoot.

—The Almanac de Gotha pales into utter insignificance beside that of Siam, which is edited by the King himself.

—Guizot is a well paid author; he receives $500 for every article he writes for the Revue Des Deux Mondes.

—Mrs. Polk, the widow of the ex-Bishop and late rebel General Leonidas Polk, has opened a school in New Orleans.

—December is the month in which American soil is to be made blissful by the tread of Miss M. E. Bradden's substantial feet.

—The soup societies of Philadelphia are preparing for the winter campaign. Such societies are by no means soup-ererogatory.

—About $21,000 have been collected for the monument to be erected at Trieste to the memory of the late Arch-Duke Maximilian.

—New York is, after all, going to have an Italian Opera Troupe this winter. De Pol is the impressario who is going to make the venture.

—Thirty-eight thousand dollars are to be appropriated to the expense of removing the obstructions in Hell Gate (the one in New York Harbor).

—Secretary Seward denies having tried to get the consent of the Cabinet to the purchase of Cuba. What's the Cuba to him, or he to the Cuba?

—The Prince Royal of Belgium is in a very bad way. His poor legs are swollen up to elephantine size and the dropsy is carrying him off slowly.

—A rumor prevails in Rome that the King of Prussia has offered to embrace the Roman faith if the Holy Father will crown him Emperor of Germany and the Holy Roman Empire at Frankfort.

—Gen. Blair is in Illinois, where for all we care he may stay, but he won't, he circulates like a twenty-five cent note, and in the same way seems to gather a little more dirt each place he comes to.

—A whale in the Pacific, fastened to by a Chilian whaling bark's boat, not long ago, crushed three of the boats in his ponderous jaws, and killed one man, besides breaking the leg of another, before he was captured.

—France is trying to domesticate the ostrich. If this succeeds it would be an excellent thing for the nail business, as nails are popularly believed to form, with broken glass, the chief article of food of that strange bird.

—Dadanwala Maha Walawwe Wijayasundara Senewiratna Wikkramasinha Navaratna Chandrasekara Pandite Wasalamudiyanselage Manduma Banda has been appointed Deputy Coroner for Yattinuwara, in India.

—Berthold Auerbach, the German novelist, has sold advance sheets of his new book, "The Villa on the Rhine," to publishers in in six different countries. He is frank enough to pronounce this book his chef d'œuvre. He receives a larger copy-right than has ever before been paid to a German novelist.

—An enterprising speculator has purchased a whole square in a central location in Philadelphia, and is about to build 188 handsome dwelling houses, with large side yards. The entire cost will be more than $700,000.

—People should carry fog-whistles with them on mornings like that of yesterday, when the air was so thick that at any moment collissions were imminent, and in excited political campaigns collisions are dangerous.

—The recent elections have inspired the following lines in the brain of a poet:

Indiana supports the Tanner,
Pennsylvania has the man;
Then old Ohio makes a trio,
While brave Nebraska does what you ask her,
And Jersey blue is coming too.

—Queen Victoria is going to have a statue representing Prince Albert in his youth, erected in the front of Castle Rosenau. A German sculptor, who was well acquainted with the Prince Consort, is to cast the statue.

—A Newport, R. I., family were driven into the street in the night recently, by strange noises in the chimney. The noise proceeded from a tame crow which was sitting on the chimney and cawing, the sound coming down the flue.

—A mixture called "butter compound" is advertised in New York papers, a small quantity of which, its proprietors say, will make two pounds of excellent butter from one quart of milk. A "butter powder" of like nature is also in the market.

—A correspondent writes that the "Central Pacific Railroad" will not take greenbacks for fare, and, moreover, charges ten cents a mile in gold. For this the passengers probably get "more exercise to the mile" than on any other road in the country.

—Vance used to get along well enough with Democracy, but since that party has become arithmetical Vance is uneasy, as he never could add-Vance as Killpatrick tells, much to the ex-rebel's disgust. Vance says he saw an ass at the General's headquarters when he was there. Gen. Kilpatrick is a little dandified and probably had a mirror, which Vance took advantage of.

—The Salt Lake Telegraph says: With its splendid climate, Southern Utah bids fair to excel the famed Southern California in grape-raising. Already there are one hundred choice varieties of vines growing at St. George; and in one vineyard, that of J. E. Johnson, thirty varieties fruited this season. The citizens of that favored locality can gather grapes from the middle of July up to Christmas. This season's crop is excellent, and the quantity of wine that will be made will be double that of last year.

—Iowa has taken to wine-making, and 60,000 gallons will be made this season in thevicinity of Burlington. Let cheap, good native wines be plenty, and there will be less drunkenness, than if the total abstinence party worked for centuries. The principles of total abstinence may be noble and good, but they are not practical for degenerate man. We can raise good light wines enough in our Northern States to amply supply ourselves with wholesome enemies to rot-gut. And we have heard competent judges say that better wines could be raised in Georgia and Alabama than the finest brands of Xeres and Oporto.

—Geo. W. Childs, Esq., of the Philadelphia Ledger, is one of the most liberal of the prosperous men of this country. If his private charities equal his public ones, his liberality must be immense. His latest achievement was the presentation of a very handsome and valuable lot in Woodlands Cemetary to the Typographical Union of Philadelphia. Mr. Childs made this as a parting gift before taking a three months' holiday in Europe, which his untiring devotion to his own affairs and those of benevolence has rendered necessary. We sincerely hope that his short sojourn abroad will restore him to full health and vigor.

—Stuttgardt the capital of Wurtemburg has a Sorosis which discusses the best ways of raising children, keeping house and making home happy. Of course our highly intellectual Soroses in this country will have no communion with such a society nor will they have anything to do with such trivial affairs. They do not want happy homes or well raised children, they have minds far above such things and wings which bear them only into the heaven of politics. There are some persons who admire such women as these Germans, but they are generally miserable men who find no delight in such monstrosities as four legged children, headless roosters, crowing hens, and brazen women.

A Pioneer Pomologist.

The Charleston News says:

About two years ago Mr. Derby, the well-known New York publisher, purchased a fruit farm at Aiken, S. C., the property of Mr. Marley, for $12,000 or $15,000. Mr. Derby moved his family to the farm, and went vigorously to work to make his investment productive. At first there were many difficulties to overcome, but Mr. Derby persevered, and we are assured that his profit has averaged $500 per month during the whole period of his possession. This handsome income was derived from the sale of peaches, apples and grapes—the last having turned out to be very productive. There is still much to be done in the way of securing proper accommodation and quick steamship passage to the Northern cities before the fruit trade can reach its most remunerative point; but it is estimated that in a good year, with fair shipping facilities, the crop of Mr. Derby's farm will sell for at least $12,000.

In addition to securing so sound and valuable an investment, Mr. Derby has recruited his health, which was delicate, and is now said to be of the opinion that Aiken is the healthiest place on this continent, and may be made one of the most prosperous.

The gentleman whom we have mentioned was not a practical farmer. Nor had he any experience in promology. But he was an intelligent man of business, and gave the trees of old Aiken an opportunity of doing their best. The success which Mr. Derby has met with will, we hope, stimulate others to follow his example. Industrious, hard-working men could soon make the face of the country smile like a garden; and none could do it better, and more to their own advantage, than some of our steady, thrifty Germans, who have the knack of making a money machine of every undertaking to which they put their hands.

RIVER NEWS.

A drizzling rain fell at times yesterday, but last evening, the clouds appeared to have broken up, and the prospects for a rise are about as remote as ever.

The Mary Davage, en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, is laid up at Louisville, waiting for water.

—The Julia No. 2, has taken the place of the Rebecca in the Wheeling & Parkersburg packet trade.

—Captain Frank Oakes, of the Alaska, was taken very sick, about a week ago, when the boat was above Cairo, and is now ill on board, of congestive chills.

—The Leonidas, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, broke twenty-five timbers, at Grassy Flats, and goes on the ways at Madison for repairs. It will cost her near $1,000.

—Mr. Frank Devenney, brother of Capt. H. H. Devenney, Local Inspector at Cincinnati, died suddenly at that place on Saturday of congestion of the heart. Frank was for several years connected with the freight office of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, in this city, and was well known here although, his home was at Steubenville, and his remains were sent there for interment.

—On the last up trip of the J. N. M'Cullough, which was announced for Pittsburgh, she took aboard a lot of mules at Maysville, destined for the former point. There was no probability that the McCullough would be able to reach Pittsburgh, but she expected to reship the mules by rail at Bellair. Upon reaching Parkersburg the boat laid up. Capt. Moore informed the owner of the mules, who was on board, that he could take the animals no further, and offered to pro-rate for the distance they had been carried. This was refused. Capt. Moore then told the owner that the mules might remain aboard until there was sufficient water in the river for the boat to get to Pittsburgh. The owner would not permit this. It was afterward agreed that they should be reshipped on the Wm. Butler for Wheeling, but the owner would not in any way assist in their transfer. They were safely got aboard the Butler, however, and safely arrived at Wheeling. But before they were got ashore the boat caught fire, and the mules were burned. The owner now contemplates bringing suit against the J. N. McCullough for the value of the mules. We look for the result with some interest..........Capt. Thomas Shuman wrote to shippers at St. Louis last night to ask whether he hadn't better sell here 2,000 sacks grain and 150 tuns pig iron, now on board the Wauanita, and destined for Pittsburgh.........The Belle Vernon, from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, arrived yesterday afternoon, and laid up at the foot of Ludlow street to await water. She has about 16 tuns freight for here, and 300 tuns for above.—Cincinnati Gazette.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be, and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out of the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. K. says that he has known the most distressing and harassing coughs, whose vibrations would threaten to shake the whole constitution to pieces, removed in the course of a few days. In long standing cases of consumption, or of other sometimes fatal but always troublesome and annoying maladies, known as catarrh, chronic bronchitis, trachitis or pharyngitis, it is a wonderful alleviating medicine in the former and a sure cure in the latter disease.

DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE IS ENRICHED BY SOME OF THE MOST VALUABLE PLANTS AND HERBS KNOWN TO BE USEFUL AND CURATIVE IN ALL DETERIORATED STATES OF THE HUMAN BLOOD, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable and so most surely fatal.

Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at

THE Republican Torchlight Demonstration to-night promises to prove the most imposing of the campaign in this neighborhood. Let all Republicans able to march and bear a torch be found in the ranks!

MR. SEYMOUR has taken the stump, and has a number of set conundrums to propound to his friends. Swans sing before they die, and why should MR. SEYMOUR not follow the poetical example and talk a little before meeting his political doom.

OUR official majority in Pennsylvania varies but little from 10,000, and is probably a very little short of that figure. Nearly full official returns from other States give us some 2,400 in Nebraska, about 17,000 in Ohio, and from 1,000 to 1,500 in Indiana.

GENERAL CURTIS, the hero of Fort Fisher and a Democrat high in the past confidence of that party, is now cordially for GRANT. He expressly repudiates the BLAIR version of Democratic principles, and pledges his hearty support "to the election of GRANT, and the success of the principles illustrated in his public life and services." And so it is with thousands of Democrats, in every State.

GEORGE W. CHILDS, ESQ., has done a good thing, in donating to the Philadelphia printers a large and valuable burial lot in Woodlands Cemetery. The gift was munificent, and will be appreciated by the craft throughout the entire country, as fresh evidence of the generosity and benevolence of the donor. Mr. CHILDS deserves the large measure of prosperity he enjoys in this world, for there are few who know better how to share it with fellow-beings less fortunate.

DEMOCRATIC JOURNALS are very busily reviving, just now, the "secret history" of Mrs. SURRATT'S case. We take this to be a proof that they have finally abandoned the idea of nominating General HANCOCK for the Vice Presidency, vice BLAIR cashiered. In this connection, two facts will not be forgotten: 1st, that HANCOCK was a very prominent candidate before the Democracy at New York, and, 2d, that the execution of Mrs. SURRATT was conducted under his military direction. Any connection supposed to exist between these two facts will be interesting to that party rather than to us.

MORE DEMOCRATIC arguments! Read the fresh developments, at New York, of the Democratic scheme to overcome the suffrages of the people by a gigantic and universal conspiracy for stuffing the ballot-boxes with unlawful votes! It is the same game everywhere, and we warn the friends of the Union that so much of this conspiracy as may have been already exposed in the three great States will prove to be but a preliminary chapter to the still more enormous villainies which are now plotted by the friends of the "lost cause" to stifle the popular voice in November. We should be prepared for villainies, to be then committed by those desperate partizans, in comparison with which all that we have yet heard of will fade into a trivial insignificance.

THIS EVENING'S DEMONSTRATION.

It is generally understood that every friend of Gen. GRANT, along the route of the procession this evening, will have his house fittingly decorated and illuminated. Let the city present a glow of light which shall be a deserving emblem of the grander illumination of patriotic loyalty to the Republic, which is to blaze out on the 3rd of November!

TOO LATE.

The leaders of the Democratic plot to revive the "lost cause" would now persuade the American people that they contemplate the use of fairly peaceful means to overthrow the reconstructed governments. WADE HAMPTON, the National Committee and prominent Democratic journals all unite in this protest against the natural construction which has been placed by all the people upon their platform, and which has been hitherto so often and so clearly sustained by their own interpretations, and illustrated by events all over the South.

It is too late, too late, too late!

PROFESSION VS. PRACTICE.

The same telegrams last evening brought to us advices curiously coincident in date, and not altogether without some harmony in point of fact. The first announced large purchases of arms and other war-like materials, are being made in New York for Southern account, and immediately shipped to the Gulf ports. The second dispatch gave the substance of a letter from that rebel Democrat, WADE HAMPTON, in which he re-affirms his belief that the South will abide by the decision against the reconstruction acts which they confidently expect from the Supreme Court, all of which, being interpreted in the light of past experience and current events, means that the Democratic party proposes to delude the people into a belief that they do not hold with BLAIR who quotes the Milligan decision as already settling the question, and that it is not intended to do the very thing which their official platform expressly demands, viz, to nullify those laws, without other judicial authority, and by the force of executive bayonets. An intelligent people are not to be deceived by any bold artifice of this nature, conceived and published on the eve of the election. They know, and upon indisputable Democratic authority, precisely what is really intended in this platform, and by its rebel Democratic supporters, and, while Camilla and Opelousas are remembered, and the carnival of murder goes on unchecked in all the South, the people will harken to the convincing logic of deeds, not to the empty professions by which the traitors hope to mask their infernal purposes.

THE LAST CARD.

Driven to desperation, disheartened, panic stricken and disorganized, the Democratic party stands to-day more an object of pity than of scorn. Routed in all the battles it has engaged, its leaders look in vain for new tactics whereby to save themselves from the total annihilation so imminent in November. A back track has been entered upon and the talent and energy of the whole party is now being brought to bear to blind the people as to what has been said, done and written in the progress of the campaign since the nomination of insipid SEYMOUR and revolutionary BLAIR by the memorable conclave of rebels in New York. It is too late. The Democracy have been too zealous in the North and South in promulgating their dangerous doctrines and intentions and the people are keenly awake to the grave designs entertained by the opposition on the peace and perpetuity of the nation. Where opportunity presented, States have already spoken in thundering tones in condemnation of the party favorable to the re-enactment of the dreadful scenes through which our country has just passed, and from the shock of which the industry and commerce of the country have hardly rallied. The people want Peace. GRANT, who gained them the boon at such fearful sacrifice of Union blood, promised Peace at the inception of the canvass; while BLAIR, backed by his party, with a dash of daring, pledged to open anew the healing wound of the nation, and to inaugurate a new rebellion at all hazards. Peace and War went hand in hand before the people. How they have spoken, and will yet speak, has been told in Vermont, Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The Democrats, perceiving their own destruction inevitable if their purposes be not hidden from the people, have gloved their blood-red right hand, and now, with their left, set about to wipe out the doctrines they had so fearlessly espoused previous to the late elections. The people will not be deceived. They have sickened of war and will not be entrapped into supporting men who put on the mask of peace at the eleventh hour to better accomplish the nefarious designs they have upon the Government.

It is not surprising in the present desperate dilemma of the opposition, that the Democratic National Executive Committee, after vainly attempting to force SEYMOUR and BLAIR off the track as candidates, should see proper to send forth to the country a sugar-coated address, designed to "assume the pressure and lift the veil" from the eyes of the people. The pretentious document we received by telegraph last night, and had neither the room nor the inclination to give it place in our columns. It is humiliating to an extreme to the American citizen to witness such a respectable minority of his fellow-voters as are found in the Democratic party, cringing at the feet of the people they have so grossly offended, and seeking for votes under false pretenses. The address is an apology to the nation, but the sincerity of the authors might have been less liable to doubt, had it been promulgated anterior to the castigation they received on the second Tuesday of the present month. Thousands sued for pardon and forgiveness after GRANT had throttled rebellion and driven traitors into the last ditch, but the insincerity of their repentance has been shown in many instances in the lately rebellious States. Under the lash, repentant; out of its reach, as wicked as ever. And so with these newly converted apostles of order, law and peace.

The address may be summed up in a few words, as follows: "American people, we come before you in a new role. Our good Mr. BLAIR does not want a fight, neither do we. We were all in fun when we said so—a way we have of joking. It is with you to wrest the power from the wicked Radicals and give us a Democratic Conservative administration, upon principles of Justice, Economy and Constitutional Liberty. BLAIR and other orators on our side of the house have told you what we mean to do. We want peace and union, and to give the people of the South their rights. We want to reduce our Army and Navy, because we want peace. We want to economize, and desire equal taxation. The Radical party is the party of violence. Again we say Mr. BLAIR does not want another revolution, and if he or any other man did, we wouldn't fight, as our record is written. The ballot-box (no reference to the Philadelphia one,) is our only redress. You have, Democratic friends, a good leader in HORATIO; we know him well. Beloved for his private and public virtues, a statesman, patriot, and general good fellow, he should be elected. (No allusion to fighting FRANCIS.) Opposed, you have wicked men who couldn't pay in three years the national debt incurred in fighting our Southern wing when in rebellion. They are very wicked men. Four years ago we attempted to oust them from power, but didn't succeed and must now make a final onslaught on them. If the Radicals are retained in place revolution will be a fixed fact. They are stubborn and desperate (vide late election returns) but a victory for us will be their death blow (figuratively speaking, perhaps). Our ranks are unbroken, our courage up to the sticking point, but you must put forward strenuous endeavors. The prize is worthy all exertion."

Poor fellows! Let the ponderous document be met by all good Republicans with GRANT'S chapter on American politics which is written in four words: "LET US HAVE PEACE."

THE "BLAIR" DEMOCRACY.

The bond-holding wing of the demoralized and frantic Democracy demand that BLAIR shall be thrown overboard, because, as the N. Y. World says, "in the unfortunate Brodhead letter, he used some inconsiderate expressions of which the Republicans have made a great handle." And it adds: "Considering how open the Brodhead letter is to misconstruction, we think that General BLAIR ought to withdraw," &c. Let us see where the misconstruction has been. In his Brodhead letter, which we have several times printed in full, and which we now quote from, General BLAIR, on the 30th of June, wrote thus from Washington:

> There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their President and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction; the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive. * * * *
>
> There is but one way to restore the government and the constitution; and that is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet-bag State Governments, allow the white people to reorganize their own governments, and elect Senators and Representatives.
>
>
> I repeat that this is the real and only question which we should allow to control us.
>
> It is idle to talk of bonds, greenbacks, gold, the public faith, and the public credit. We must restore the constitution before we can restore the finances, and to do this we must have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into dust the usurpations of Congress, known as the Reconstruction acts. I wish to stand before the convention upon this issue, but it is one which embraces everything else that is of value in its large and comprehensive results. It is the one thing that includes all that is worth a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignity, honor, or value to the struggle.
>
> Your friend, FRANK P. BLAIR.

The Democratic Convention, sitting from July 4th to the 10th, accepted Mr. BLAIR "upon that issue" and made him its candidate for the second place on the ticket. Adopting, at the same time, as a platform, an official expression of the principles of the entire body of the National Democracy, its second resolution declared that—

> We regard the reconstruction acts (so-called) of Congress, as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and VOID.

One of the Committee which reported these resolutions to the Convention was WADE HAMPTON, an ex-rebel General, and a delegate from South Carolina. On his return home, he gave to his constituents, in a public speech at a ratification meeting in Charleston, an account of the private deliberations of that Committee. He then said:

> "As it was my good fortune to be on the Committee which framed this instrument, [the Platform] it may be interesting to you perhaps, to learn the details by which it was perfected, and the views of those who made it. As you are aware, the Committee on Resolutions consisted of one member from each State. On assembling, it was found that a very great difference of opinion existed. Among other resolutions offered, were some declaring that the right of suffrage belonged to the States, and this was announced to be good Democratic doctrine. I agreed to the propositions, but at the same time said that it seemed to me they had omitted one very vital point, which was to declare to what States the doctrine applied. Gentlemen were there from the North, South, East and West, and by all we were met with extreme cordiality. THEY SAID THEY WERE WILLING TO GIVE US EVERYTHING WE DESIRED; but we of the South must remember that they had a great fight to make, and it would not be policy to place upon the platform that which would engender prejudice at the North. They, however, pledged themselves to do all in their power to relieve the Southern States, and restore to us the Constitution as it had existed. As we were met in such a kindly spirit, I could not but reciprocate it. I said I would take the resolutions if they would allow me to add but three words, which you will find embodied in the platform. I added: "And we declare that the Reconstruction acts are revolutionary, unconstitutional and void." When I proposed that, every single member of the Committee—and the warmest men in it were the men of the North—came forward and said they would carry it out to the end.

The Democrats of South Carolina held a State Convention, at Columbia, a few days after, to ratify the nomination of SEYMOUR and BLAIR. Gov. PERRY, who had been a delegate, said that "WADE HAMPTON was the lion of the Convention." And he added:

> Hampton was courted by all parties, North, South, East and West, and when, as a member of the Committee on Platform, he submitted that section which declares the reconstruction acts void and revolutionary, the rest of the Committee told him to make it as strong as he pleased, they would endorse it.

HAMPTON himself, in a speech made October 12th—last week—at Columbia, S. C., re-affirmed his former declarations, as follows:

> I did say that it was my plank in the platform, and it is the plank of every Southern gentleman. I was on the Committee to frame the platform, and the Southern delegates on that committee felt themselves as guests only, and resolved to express no preference in the nominations going on, and to take no steps in the interpolation of any plank in the platform. We were willing to leave the entire matter in the hands of the great Democracy of the North, feeling assured that they would at least do us full justice. The only resolution I offered in that committee was one pleding the support of the South to the Judiciary of the United States, and proposing to leave the matter of the status of the Southern States in their hands for final adjustment and settlement. In the progress of the debate which arose upon this, a Northern delegate expressed the hope that we would not press the point, upon which every Southern delegate withdrew whatsoever resolution he might have offered. A gentleman from Michigan uttered the assurance that in the event of the success of the Democracy, the South would find relief from her troubles; that the reconstruction acts of Congress would be declared revolutionary, null and void. I then said: "If those three words were inserted in the platform it would be all we would ask; we would be satisfied." These words were inserted by a distinguished son of that glorious little State, Connecticut, and were unanimously adopted. This was the extent of my revolutionary action in New York.

The absolute agreement between the Brodhead letter and the official platform is thus completely established, by the undeniable testimony of a leading member of the Committee.

North and South, in every State and by all the Democratic journals and speakers, the BLAIR-BRODHEAD-HAMPTON plank in the platform has been heartily accepted and defended—by none more so than the Pittsburgh Post. On this point we also quote from leading Southern Democratic authorities, first of which is BLAIR himself, after his nomination. In his speech of August 8th, at St. Joseph, Mo., he said:

> "But we are told that even if the Democratic party elect their President, and a majority of the House of Representatives, that these carpet-baggers who assume to constitute a majority of the Senate, will defeat legislation, and will impose this ignorant and semi-barbarious race of the negroes upon the country as the superior of the white man. Let them dare to do it, and they will find that the more than one million of voters who are opposed to this scheme will make it impossible to them to perpetrate such a continuing outrage upon American citizens." *

And so the following:

> "The views of General Blair are more satisfactory to the South, and more consistent with the theories which have always obtained among our most judicious statesmen, than those which the crisis has called forth from any other leading mind in the country. He is a bold, fearless soldier—one who dares assert the truth, and not over punctilious as to the means which he adopts to secure its vindication."—[Petersburg Express.
>
> "The grinning skeletons which have been set up in our midst as legislators, shall be ousted by Frank Blair, whom the Democratic party has expressly appointed for that purpose. All these things shall be swept from the bosom of the country."—[Robert Toombs.
>
> "It was the identical letter of Frank Blair to his friend Colonel Brodhead that secured the Missouri hero the nomination for Vice President. We want just such ammunition as Frank Blair uses."—[Vicksburg Times

It is of no use to multiply these extracts, with which we have heretofore filled broad pages. The man who now denies that BLAIR is the faithful representative of the party which nominated him, or who demands that he be thrown aside as going beyond those points to which the Democracy have expressly and officially committed themselves, must be either an idiot or a knave, and we are happy to perceive that our Democratic neighbor of the Post herein substantially, but cordially, agrees with us.

THE DEMOCRACY are still in tribulation with their Presidential ticket. Mr. SEYMOUR'S friends insist that BLAIR ought to withdraw. But the latter don't see it in that way and is sustained by a majority of the party, including the National Democratic Committee. It is now announced that Mr. SEYMOUR is to take the stump in New York and Pennsylvania, and that he is about to issue an address to the party. His appointments for speaking doubtless include New York, where his "friends" hung O'BRIEN and burned an Asylum over the heads of little orphans, and Centre county, Pa., where CASEY was murdered by other friends of his. As his principal theme will be a disavowal of any responsibility for his associate on the ticket, we shall have the pleasure of hearing one candidate publicly repudiating the other. As this will not be our funeral, we have no right to object to it.

We learn from the Cincinnati Enquirer that "the desire for new candidates has been founded, not on a dissatisfaction with the present ones, but only on a conviction of the greater availability of those proposed, under the circumstances." This means that the platform is to remain, in letter and spirit, unchanged. The same journal, resenting "a mean fling at Mr. PENDLETON" from the New York World, says that "if the latter had been the candidate, the result would would have been far different in Ohio."

The end of this muddle among the Democracy is not yet.

THE Post yesterday paid a bitter parting word to the noble little band of Labor Reformers who clung to the Democratic party and did their level best to secure the election of Prof. BURTT, JAMES BLACKMORE and others. The workingmen have learned wisdom and almost as a solid mass voted with the Republican party at the recent election, and hence excited the ire of our neighbor. We hope, after the Post's insult, the few remaining workingmen who adhere to the opposition will have their eyes opened and come over to the party that has always been friendly to their interests and respected them as men and citizens.

LOYAL DEMOCRACY TO THE FRONT.

The address from the Democracy of New York, to all "Democrats who keep step to the music of the Union," calling a mass meeting, to be held on the 28th, is a very forcible appeal to the patriotic feeling of the party, to give speedy and decisive proof that their Democracy is neither Nullification nor Disunion. It points, with indisputable precision, to the obstinacy with which the adherents of the "lost cause," seeming to profess submission to the final arbitrament of the war, still cling to the pernicious principles which ever animated them, and which, this year, has embodied nullification in the platform of the so-called Democracy, threatening disunion as the penalty of any popular resistance. After a confession of the deep anxiety with which a more loyal Democracy have waited for a confession of this error, with an abandonment of a position so menacing to the Republic, the address alludes to Gen. BLAIR, and the present statur of the Democratic party, as follows:

> A nominee for Vice President who owed his selection wholly to his fresh deliberate recommendation that the next President should undertake to subvert existing State governments, and nullify acts of Congress by naked force, without even a pretense of legislative or judicial authority for so doing. There is no precedent for so reckless a proposition from an exalted source, to enthrone anarchy and light afresh the fires of civil war, even before the houses have been rebuilt which our late war laid in ashes.
> We have waited patiently for the correction of errors which, if left uncorrected, must prove fatal to their indorsers. We have waited in vain. Even the late signal manifestations of public sentiment, which the blind can scarcely misread, have wrought no amendment. The machinery of the Democratic party, as now organized, is wielded by men who approved General Blair's letter to Brodhead, conformed to rebel dictation in the adjustment of their platform, and justify the murders at Camilla. They proffer us no alternative but this: Either confess that we were wrong in resisting secession and dis-union, or support Gen. Grant for President. We decide to stand by the Union, and vote for Grant.

Among the signers of the call, it is said, are several of the foremost citizens of New York, "who never yet voted any other than the regular Democratic ticket, yet who now perceive weighty reasons for giving an open and hearty support to Gen. GRANT. They represent thousands who think, and will quietly act, as they do."

FRATERNAL FORGIVENESS.

It will be a touching spectacle of political magnanimity, which will be presented at the November polls, when we see Democrats of foreign birth marching up to cast their votes directly for a man who, not many years since, swore to "remove all foreigners, aliens or Roman Catholics from office or place." Such was the oath which FRANK P. BLAIR subscribed to, in 1855, when he traversed Pennsylvania, establishing Know-Nothing lodges. We append the first and second "degrees" of the order in which he was a leading member, and beg our foreign-born citizens to bear them in mind when voting for him. A charge of this nature, made against Mr. COLFAX, has been amply refuted. We have seen no contradiction of it in Mr. BLAIR'S case. When any such, on responsible authority, shall be exhibited to us, we will not fail to make mention of it. At present, his proscriptive record stands unchallenged, and here are the oaths which he then swore to:

FIRST DEGREE.

In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, you do solemnly promise and swear that * * you will not vote nor give your influence for any man, for any office in the gift of the American people, unless he be an American-born citizen, in favor of Americans ruling America, nor if he be a Roman Catholic.

SECOND DEGREE.

In the presence of Almighty God and before these witnesses you do solemnly and sincerely swear * * * if it may be legally done, you will, when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on you the power to do so, remove all foreigners, aliens, or Roman Catholics from office or place; and that you will in no case appoint such to any office or place in your gift.

THE PARTY OF ASSASSINATION.

Slowly but significantly is developed the new programme of the rebel Democracy. For example:

> THE DAGGER OF BRUTUS may aid in accomplishing our redemption from radical rule, ruin and usurpation.—Mobile Register.
>
> "THE SPIRIT OF WILKES BOOTH STILL LIVES, thank God! Therefore take courage! Seymour, Blair, and the revival of the great cause is the motto of every true man!"—Pine Bluff Vindicator.
>
> President Grant will never leave the White House alive—Frank Blair's St. Louis Speech.
>
> "If he is elected by unfair means or use of illegal power—if he does not receive a majority of the 317 votes of the Electoral College, fairly cast—if he seeks to override a majority in America, he dies before his term of office shall one-fourth expire, and the party that would thus unjustly elevate him to power shall be strangled in the blood it cries for."—Brick Pomeroy.

Thus, the Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, whom the Pittsburgh Post insists upon keeping on their ticket, and three leading Democratic journals, to which others might be added, agree in their infamous declaration that the voice of the people shall be defeated by another assassination. This is to be a part of the "blood-letting" which the Mobile Register considers necessary, "for the completion of a counter-revolution."

ONE of the numerous editions of the New York Tribune, published at Philadelphia, attributes the success of the Republican party in this State, to the efficient labors of the New York branch of that journal. The "fact" that the Tribune furnished all the ammunition, in the way of "facts, figures and arguments," is cited as not very creditable to the press of this State. We have no wish to disparage the value of such services from any branch of the Tribune establishment, but we cannot repress our admiration for the modesty of a claim, which at least a portion of our Republican press will dispute.

IN 1840 the Democracy carried Pennsylvania in the October election by four thousand majority, but lost the State in November. Pennsylvania can be changed now.—Post.

A very fair sample of Democratic expectations. The uses of adversity are said to be sweet, but here is a richness not yet exceeded.

AN ACT OF JUSTICE DEMANDED.

Petitions are in circulation among the citizens of the Eastern District of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, demanding the dismissal of Prothonotary SNOWDEN on the following grounds:

That Mr. Snowden permitted tip-staves of the court to examine, and administer the necessary affidavits to applicants and vouchers in his absence and out of his hearing.

That Mr. Snowden permitted this to be done to the alarming extent of naturalizing seven hundred and twenty aliens in five consecutive hours.

That Mr. Snowden entrusted the safe-keeping of the seal of the court to a political partizan, who had been employed in his office but a single day.

That Mr. Snowden entrusted the duty of filling up blank certificates to a man who had been convicted of issuing forged land warrants.

That Mr. Snowden permitted this state of affairs to continue after it had been proved by a judicial investigation, at which he was present, that the system afforded opportunity for fraud.

That Mr. Snowden exercised so little care and supervision over the papers of his office that large numbers of blank certificates of naturalization, with the seal of the court attached, were circulated throughout the State.

OUR readers in Washington county will be interested in the annexed paragraph from the Wheeling Intelligencer:

> FRAUDULENT VOTING:—Some forty or fifty Democratic citizens of this county were deported to Washington county, Pennsylvania, last Tuesday, and there voted. The names of nearly all these men are in possession of the Executive County Committee.

GEO. FRANCIS TRAIN admonishes all Irishmen that in voting the Democratic ticket, they will be supporting a party friendly to England.

THE LARGEST ADVERTISING CONTRACT given out in 1868, and probably the largest ever given to one advertising firm at one time is that of the proprietors of PLANTATION BITTERS to GEO. P. ROWELL & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row, New York, on the 18th of Sept., for $43,776.26.

Messrs. P. H. Drake & Co., have for years been among the largest, if not the largest, advertisers in America, and the contract mentioned above is but a small part of their expenditure in this way for the present year. It is only those who have tried printers' ink most extensively that are so firmly convinced of its efficacy.

The Advertising Agency which is sending out this order is another example. It commenced business less than five years since, and the fact that it now controls a greater advertising patronage than any similar establishment, is without doubt to be attributed to their having expended more money in advertising themselves and their facilities within that time than all other advertising firms put together, since the establishment of the first agency a quarter of a century since.

"CAN WE flatter Grant?" asked one Democrat of another this morning. "No, he is now sure to go in; let us try to Andrew Johnsonize him." To which the other replied: "It wont do. That has been tried. He is a hard nut, and we can never crack him. The only way to get on with him is to trust him. He won't stand the humbug that captured Johnson."

A SLIGHT COLD, COUGH,

Or SORE THROAT may be checked if a reliable remedy is applied at once, but if neglected very soon preys upon the lungs, and the result may prove fatal. The past few weeks of changeable temperature and cold rains are fruitful sources of troubles of the lungs, throat and chest. If you are attacked by a cold, no matter how slight, use at once

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP,

Which is an old and well tried remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is entirely free from any deleterious ingredient, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Gives sure and almost immediate relief to hoarseness and that annoying sensation, tickling, in the throat. If you would obtain a reliable remedy, be sure and call for

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

If your Druggist does not keep it, ask him to get it for you.

COUNSEL FOR THE CARELESS.

The body is a machine, and carelessness in its management is as sure to lead to evil results as carelessness in the management of a steam engine. Yet the last thing that most people think of is the protection of this delicate piece of the Creator's handiwork from the subtle causes of disease by which it is surrounded. It is no easy thing to repair the system when in ruins; but there is no difficulty in fortifying it against many of the dangers to which it is exposed. Guard against nervous debility. At the first symptom of this fore-runner of more serious ailments, sustain the flagging energies of nature with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Take it regularly and persistently, until bodily vigor is thoroughly restored. It creates an appetite, promotes—or, it might as properly be said compels—the complete digestion of the food, regulates the secretive action of the liver, tones and invigorates the bowels, improves the condition of the blood, and gives firmness to the nerves. Upon a system thus strengthened and regulated in all its important functions, the fogs and exhalations of autumn, pregnant with the elements of intermittent fever can make little or no impression. Whoever supposes that fever and ague is an unavoidable evil in certain districts, at this season of the year, is egregiously mistaken. As effectually as a draught of cold air is shut out by the closing of a door, this complaint, and all disorders of a miasmatic type, may be prevented by the use of the BITTERS. When sickness can be avoided by a means so safe and simple, is it not the merest fatuity to neglect the proffered antidote? Regarded either as a preventive or a cure for dyspepsia biliousness, intermittent fever, nervous disorders, general debility, or constipation of the bowels, this pure vegetable preparation stands alone.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 21, 1868.

The locking up of about five millions of currency by the bear party has brought down gold, bonds and stocks. Gold opened at 136¾ to 137, and remained firm at 136¾ until towards the close, when the market declined to 136, with a further declining tendency. Never before have the bear party in gold showed such a persistency in hammering down the market, and, although as much as one per cent. has been paid for the use of gold over Sunday, it will pay them finally to hold out at any expense. A decline in gold will also depress bonds unless the demand for them from Europe would bring new purchasers in the market. The scarcity of money brought out a great many weak holders who have bought recently at high prices, and are unable to hold. The condition of the gold and stock market points towards lower rates for bonds; the Presidential election being virtually decided, business has taken a new start and money is needed in regular business again; likewise, does the cotton crop require additional currency, especially in districts where there are but few banks issuing currency which has to be shipped from the seaboard cities. Activity in trade in the south and west has a different effect on the bank movements than a brisk business in the east, where it is merely changing the accounts in the individual ledgers of the bank.

Stocks are dull and lower; after an advance of ½ per cent. the market closed dull and heavy.

—Last fall, P. O. Choteau, a well-known citizen of St. Louis, paid taxes to the amount of $10,000 with a check on Tesson & Co., bankers, who failed the next day. The Collector did not present the check on the day he received it, as he might have done, and refused to give credit for the amount. Mr. Choteau refused to "pay again," whereupon the Collector attached Choteau's property and recovered judgment. The case was appealed, but the higher Court refused to reverse the judgment of the former Court, on the ground that the check was not a legal tender.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 21, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market is quiet and unchanged. Sales of 2,500 bbls in lots for October at 11¾; and 300 bbls on spot at 15¼, packages included. The market seems to be in a very peculiar condition, and among dealers generally there is an universal complaint of dullness, with but little prospect of any immediate improvement. The brokers are doing all they can to make it go but without success; there are any number of "refusals" out almost every day, but somehow or other by the time the broker gets one party set, something turns up and the other "backs-water." Buyers option, all next year, is nominal at 15, that figure having been offered on Tuesday, and thus far, there have been no sellers that we could hear of.

REFINED.

The market for Refined was dull and a little weak to-day, and, compared with yesterday, prices were a shade lower. There was but a single sale reported, 500 bbls October at 29½c. We heard of offers to sell the last three months at 29c, and all next year, 500 each month, at 30½c to 31c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 21, 1868.

Business, generally, continues dull, and there is but little prospect of any improvement. There is a general complaint among business men of small margins, and it does not appear to be confined to any one branch of trade. Competition is showing itself strongly, and, as a consequence, profits are very small, and those who have a good business, to use a common phrase, have to work cheap.

It was supposed on Monday that Wheat had touched bottom in Chicago, but later dispatches have not verified the prediction. On Tuesday evening No. 2 sold down to 128¼, the lowest point it has touched this season, or, indeed, for several years, and it may decline still further—there is no telling where it will stop.

GROCERIES—The grocery market is quiet and devoid of any new features worthy of special notice. The demand is light, being confined mainly to supplying immediate wants, while prices are unchanged. The following are the ruling quotations:

APPLES—In good supply and dull, but with a steady demand, prices are maintained, ranging from $2,50 to $3,50 for fair to choice.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged; sales of packed at 30 to 35c, and Roll at 38 to 40c.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is coming in more freely, and we now quote at $5,50 to $6 per cwt.

CRANBERRIES—The supply is almost exhausted, and as they are reported higher east than they have been selling here, higher prices are expected. We quote nominally at $16 to $17 per bbl.

CHESTNUTS—Have still further declined, and we now quote at $5,50 to $6 per bushel.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 17 to 20c for Hamburg, Factory and Goshen.

POTATOES—Sales of 1 car choice Peach Blows at $1 which is above the market; bulk of the sales at 85 to 90. Sweets steady at $4.50 to $5 per bbl.

Oats steady with a fair demand at 66 to 67 on track, and 69 to 70 in store. Barley is firm and prime State and Canada is in steady demand at full prices; No. 2 Chicago would have to be sold at a reduction. CLIPPINGS.

THE Petroleum of the banks of the Irrawaddy, in Burmah, is being pumped up from a depth of 270 feet, by the English, against the remonstrances of the priests and people, who look upon it as a sacred oil.

A SILVER bell, weighing twenty-eight ounces, supposed to be one of the lost chimes of St. Mary's Cathedral, Limerick, Ireland, has been accidentally discovered by a diver in one of the deepest pools of the Abbey River, in that city. The bells were flung into the river in the old days of persecution, to save them, and it is expected that the rest of the chime will now be recovered.

THE finances of Hungary are reported to be in a flourishing condition. At the end of the present year a surplus of $2,500,000 will remain in the treasury. This is an unusual circumstance, the expenditures having exceeded the receipts for each of the last eighteen years. In one instance the deficit amounted to $4,500,000. The cause of the present prosperity is attributed to the fine harvests and vine crops.

AMERICAN HAY.---The official copy of the English order in council, forbidding the importation of hay shipped from the United States, has been received in Washington. The order was to take effect on September 25. Hay intended only for horses will be permitted to be landed under special permits. The object of the order is to prevent the introduction into England of the cattle disease, which, it is supposed, can be transmitted by the droppings in the hay.

BORACIC ACID and the borates have recently been discovered to exist in the hot water springs near Massa Maratima, a town of Central Italy, 22 miles northwest of Grosseto, the capital of the Maremma. The principal spring has a temperature of 80 degrees Fahrenheit, and yields about 13,000 gallons per day. The minor springs yield about the same quantity. The borax lagoons of the Maremma, with which these new springs are supposed to be in connection, are the sources of immense profit to the owners.

THE family of Nathaniel Hawthorne contemplate another visit to Europe, where during the lifetime of Mr. Hawthorne they spent so many pleasant years. The estate in Concord is offered for sale, and Mrs. Hawthorne will sail for Germany during the present month, where Mr. Julian Hawthorne, the only son of the novelist, is expected to pursue his studies. Mrs. Hawthorne has edited the journal of her husband, which Ticknor will soon publish. She is a sister of Mrs. Horace Mann and Miss Elizabeth Peabody.

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT's visit to Constantinople, with his flag-ship, has excited invidious comment in Russia. The Courier Russe of Petersburg says the entrance into the Bosphorus of the American frigate Franklin, commanded by Admiral Farragut appeares to us a most serious political event, the importance of which cannot be lessened even by the particular consideration due personally to the Admiral. In fact, it is no less than a formal violation of the treaty of Paris. In face of all arguments, this precident may give rise to other cases of the same kind.

THE FIRES in the forests of Oregon, on the banks of the Columbia river, between the Cowlitz and Willamette rivers, are stated to cover an area of 200 square miles. Navigation on the Columbia river is almost impossible, and as the woods come close up to the towns, it is supposed that the region where the fire is raging will be thoroughly devastated. Reports have been received that the coast range of hills in California are also on fire; but it is conjectured that the informants have been deceived by the smoke from Oregon rolling over the peaks to the North of Marin county.

CASSIUS M. CLAY is personally not very popular in St. Petersburg. He is said to dislike both the Emperor and old Gortschakoff, and the latter, who at first treated him with the utmost kindness, now only holds official intercourse with him. For the rest Amraicans generally are treated in St. Petersburg with less cordiality since the Alaska affair. The government felt extremely disappointed and mortifiad at the tardiness with which the purchase money was paid by the United States, and high public functionaries did not hesitate to denounce the couase pursued by the United States in regard to this matter in unmeasured terms. The aristocracy, which always follows the government in such matters, took the cue at once, and the American residents of St. Petersburg were treated more frigidly than before. Latterly, however, a change for the better is said to have taken place.

SIR PERCEY SHELLEY, son of the poet, is one of the best practical yachtsmen of England, living on board during the summer, and sailing mostly about the Mediterranean. The people where he lives take him on his merits, and never associate him in their thoughts with his father. He goes to church once on Sunday, but doesn't stand high for vital piety. In his pew is a prim little stove. He is married, but childless. Fond of children, he has twice adopted a child. One has lately married, and a second—a beautiful girl—is living with him. He and his wife are extremely fond of amateur theatricals, and are accustomed to invite all the chief trades people to Boscombe House (Sir Percey's residence) for a night, to entertain them royally, and to give them an opportunity of seeing the Baronet and her ladyship perform. Lady Shelley takes deep interest in the memory of her husband's father; and the "Memorials" published in the name of her husband were really put together by her. She has the best quality of an English lady. She was a widow—Mrs. St. John—when she married Sir Percy.

A URIOUS fact has been lately brought to notice in regard to the Nevada silver mines. Heat, not water, is the chief enemy encountered after reaching a great depth, and, instead of pumping out water, the companies have to pump in air. A Nevada paper says: "The increase of heat in our mines is now beginning to give many of our mining companies more trouble, and is proving a great obstacle to mining operations in those levels lying below a depth of one thousand feet than any veins of the 'pocket' deposits of water yet encountered. A number of the leading companies on the Comstock are now engaged in putting in engines to be used expresly for driving fans for furnishing air to the lower levels, forcing it through large tubes of galvanized iron. With this great increase of heat in our mines comes a great decrease of water; in fact, in our deepest mine—the Bullion, which has attained the depth of twelve hundred feet—not a drop of water is to be seen; it is as dry as a lime-kiln and hot as an oven. In the lower workings of the Chollar-Potosi mine, which are a perpendicular depth of eleven hundred feet below the surface, the thermometer now stands at one hundred degrees—a frightful heat to be endured by a human being engaged in a kind of labor calling for severe muscular exertion. Here, also, we find the water to have decreased till there is at the present time a very insignificant amount, it being necessary to run the pump but four hours out of the twenty-four.

Prince Napoleon on the Spanish Throne.

It seems that Prince Napoleon has his eye on the throne of the deposed Isabella. It is hinted that his well known liberal principles are a guarantee that he would execute the decrees of the provisional government, and some people imagine that the renown of the family name, and his resemblance to the first Napoleon, would insure him the affections of the Spanish people.

If the people of Spain are in easnest about their freedom, they should keep out the Napoleons. No doubt the present Emperor of the French would be glad to put the Prince upon them. He is, also, as princes often are, a chief of the reds, and is reputed to own one of the liberal journals of Paris. But those Liberals who know him best would fear to trust the destinies of a nation in his hands. To win the affections of the people by a liberal policy is the policy of many princes, from which the Benapartes are not excepted. Napoleon III., as Louis Bonaparte, professed sentiments so liberal that Henri Rochefort is now banished for reprinting them. The present King of Prussia, who does not propose to let a "sheet of paper" stand in his way, was one of the most advanced Liberals as Crown Prince. French Republicans believe that Prince Napoleon is liberal because Liberalism seems to him the surest way to the throne. It is probable that Spanish Liberals will not think differently.—*N. Y. Information to Railroad Travelers.

The following "rules of the road,' are based upon legal decisions, and ought to be universally made known. The courts have decided that applicants for tickets on railroads can be ejected if they do not offer the exact amount of their fare. Conductors are not bound to make change. All railroad tickets are good until used, conditions "good for this day only," or otherwise admitting time of genuineness, are of no account. Passengers who lose their tickets can be ejected from the cars, unless they purchase a second one. Passengers are bound to observe decorum in the cars, and are obliged to comply with all reasonable demands to show their tickets. Standing on the platform or otherwise violating the rules of the company, renders a person liable to be put off the train. No person has a right to monopolize more seats than he has paid for; any article left in a seat while the owner is temporarily absent, entitles him to his seat on his return.

THE Imperial family of Russia is noted for its predilection for dogs. The Emperor is so much attached to his splendid greyhound that he takes the faithful animal with him on all his travels. The Grand Duchess Mary, the Emperor's favorite child, a girl of fifteen, has likewise a four-footed companion, a spaniel of rare intelligence and docility. On the promenade the Grand Duchess throws her handkerchief on the ground before her; the gallant dog picks it up, folds it up with the skill of the best lady's maid, and presents it to the distinguished young lady. He fetches flowers for his young mistress, and brings her petitions which poor people put into his mouth. The Grand Duke Michael is also very fond of dogs, and has several superb English bull-dogs.

PRINCE EDWARD'S ISLAND.—The agent of this British North American Colony has returned from his mission to the United States. One of his objects was to secure a new submarine cable to connect with the mainland. This, he states, has failed for the present, on account of the subsidy asked by the Telegraph Company being larger than he could agree to without consulting his Government. While the agent was in Washington, Mr. Thornton assured him that the reported negotiations with Mr. Seward on the subject of reciprocity had not taken place, nor was there any probability of that question being opened for the present.

FOR SALE--REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE.

A FARM OF 30 ACRES, on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, 27 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa. The improvements are a fine two-story brick house, with ten large rooms and hall. A large frame bank barn, with No. 1 stabling, and all other outbuildings in complete order. One of the best of orchards, of all kinds of fruit. The soil is rich new bottom. This property adjoins the village of Buena Vista, and has the advantage of churches, schools, mills, stores, &c., and will be sold at the low price of $15,000. The improvements alone are worth at least all that is asked for the property, to say nothing about the land, which is worth for garden purposes at least $10,000. For full particulars call at my office, or WILLIAM A. BELL, Esq., on the premises.

ALSO, A FARM OF 40 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, about 18 miles from the city. The improvements are a new stone dwelling, with eight rooms; a good barn and other outbuildings. This property is offered at a very low price. Call and secure yourself a good bargain.

ALSO A FARM OF 120 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 17½ miles from the city, on the Connellsville Railroad, opposite Elrod's Station, within 20 minutes' walk of the Station. The improvements are a frame house containing four rooms and kitchen, with a good cellar underneath; very good barn and other outbuildings. A No. 1 orchard, containing about 200 fruit bearing trees, all in good condition. 90 acres cleared land, the residue in good timber, underlaid with 23 acres of coal.

ALSO, A TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE adjoining the Borough of Elizabeth, Allegheny county, Pa., containing 4 rooms and kitchen. Lot 60 feet front by 126 back to an alley. A good Stable, wash house, bake-oven and other outbuildings. I am authorized to sell it at the low price of $1,800, on good terms.

ALSO, In the Borough of Elizabeth, a good two-story BRICK HOUSE, containing 4 rooms. Lot 120 feet square. Will be sold at the exceedingly low price of $2,500, on easy terms.

ALSO, My Farm, known by the name of "Willow Banks," situated on the Connellsville Railroad, 17 miles from the city, containing 79 ACRES, all in good condition. The improvements are a No. 1 brick house, two stories high, newly painted, containing six rooms, two halls running full length of the house. The house is situated on a beautiful knoll, is surrounded by fruit trees, shrubbery, vines and flowers, with a graded avenue running to the Yough. River. Also, a large frame bank barn, smoke house, wash house, coal house, bake-oven and other outbuildings, and a never-failing well of water. Two large orchards, containing from six to seven hundred fruit trees, nearly all in good bearing condition. This farm abounds in small fruits, viz: Currants, raspberries, gooseberries, and a fine large strawberry patch, which, in connexion with the richness of the soil and nearness to the city, makes it very desirable for gardening purposes. Very convenient to schools, churches, stores and blacksmith shop

ALSO, A FARM OF 158 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 31 miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the Connellsville Railroad, at Suter Station. The improvements are a common log house, a good frame barn, with stabling for ten horses; a cornerib and wagon shed; good orchard of fruit trees; fencing very good. 120 acres cleared, the residue in heavy timber land. This farm is valuable—first, for its excellent soil; secondly, its timber; and thirdly, it contains more limestone than any other farm in Pennsylvania, all accessible. The lower vein of limestone is 40 feet thick; several other veins ranging from 3½ to 6 ft. in thickness, lie under the whole farm. For particulars enquire of ELI SUTER, Esq., at Suter Station, or at my office.

ALSO, 17 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard: one hundred and twenty acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered, and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm.

ALSO, A beautifully situated tract of 60 ACRES of valuable land, under good fencing, situated in McCandless township, Allegheny county, Pa., on a township road, 7 measured miles from the Market House, Allegheny City. This tract is well adapted for a garden or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to either city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats, for persons doing business in the city.

ALSO, The best farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., 4 miles from Western Penna. R. R. at Livermore Station, containing 300 ACRES—225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are 2 two-story frame houses, nearly new, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics; a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary outbuildings, all in good order; 5 acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruits; 4 feet vein of coal (now open,) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of springs of never-failing water. Taken all together—houses, fencing, soil, nice lying surface, public highway, churches, schools, mills, &c.—I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

ALSO, FARM AND MILLS. A small tract of 60 ACRES of very valuable land in Derry township, Westmoreland county, Pa.; well fenced and in a high state of cultivation, with new frame dwelling, and other outbuildings; a new grist and saw mill complete, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the needed fixtures, in good order, and a young orchard of choice fruits; lane is all underlaid with a six foot vein of coal, now opened and worked, at the back of the mill, and limestone in abundance. Call soon and secure a good bargain.

ALSO, FARM OF 160 ACRES, situated immediately upon the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Blairsville Intersection, 54 miles east of the city. The improvements are a two-story stone house of 8 rooms, a No. 1 barn, 45 by 65 feet, the best of stabling and other outbuildings. The land lies well, is well fenced, is in good farming order, and will be sold very cheap if applied for soon.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

New Crossing.—The crossing of Robinson street, at its intersection with Federal, is being relaid.

We call attention to a campaign song by the great campaign singer, J. William Pope, Esq., which is on our second page this morning.

Paving.—The work of grading and paving Kirkpatrick streets, the commencement of which we noticed several days since, has been completed.

Meets To-Night.—The Allegheny Councils will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting this evening, at 7½ o'clock, in their Chambers, City Building.

Committed.—Alderman Thomas yesterday committed for trial Nicholas Rumbald, on a charge of larceny as bailee, preferred against him by J. S. Willis.

Second Ward, Allegheny.—All persons belonging to the Marching Club of this ward, aredirected to an advertisement in to-day's paper, on our fifth page.

Surety.—Mary Sowers made information yesterday, before Alderman Herron, against Joseph Hess for surety of the peace. The accused was arrested and committed in default of $300 bail.

Threatened Her.—Carrie Johnson alleges that her husband, Howard Johnson, threatened to strike her with a chair. Alderman Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of Howard, on an information for surety of the peace.

Liberty Street.—Liberty street will soon be paved to its present terminus in the Fifteenth ward. Seven squares of that portion recently opened and graded, have already been paved, and the work is being continued.

Large Attendance.—The average attendance of pupils during the year at the Third ward public school, Allegheny, numbers thirteen hundred, which, we understand, is the largest number in attedance at any school in the State.

Br ak Down.—One of the large sand rolls in the Sligo Mills, Temperanceville, broke down on Tuesday afternoon. It weighed about twelve tons, and was worth in the neighborhood of $2,000. The accident is attributed to the binding, which was screwed up too tight.

Seventh and Eighth Wards Marching Phalanx will find an advertisement in another column of meeting to-night. The patriotic ladies of the wards have been engaged for two days in making wreaths for the purpose of presenting each member of the Phalanx with one.

Fifth Ward (Allegheny) Grant Club.—The members of the Fifth ward (Allegheny) Grant and Colfax Club, are requested to meet promptly at seven o'clock this evening, at the headquarters, Ohio avenue. The company will participate in the torchlight procession, and the prompt attendance of every member is desired.

Dr. Jewett's Lecture.—Dr. Charles Jewett, who is widely known as an eloquent lecturer on Temperance, will deliver two addresses, one this evening, and the other to-morrow evening, in the First Presbyterian (Rev. Elliot E. Swift's) Church, Beaver street. His subject will be "The Influence of Intoxicating Liquors on the Physical, Intellectual, Social and Moral Condition of Man:" The fame of the lecturer and the importance of the subject discussed will doubtless call together a large audience.

Cross Suits.—We gave the particulars of a case yesterday, in which officer John Chess, of Alderman Lindsey's police, appeared as prosecutor and Cornelius O'Connor defendant. Mr. O'Connor and his wife have since made information before Alderman Strain against officer Chess for assault and battery. They allege that the defendant ill-treated them by choking, biting, kicking, and performing sundry other acts, which justify them in feeling assaulted and battered. The officer was arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

Alleged Fraud.—Michael Mulvaney yesterday made information before Alderman Strain against John Kinney for fraud. The prosecutor alleged that Kinney had obtained boarding from him to the amount of twenty-seven dollars, and that he was about to leave the State without paying for the same. A warrant was placed in the hands of an officer who arrested Kinney at the Union Depot and brought him to the Alderman's office where the matter was compromised by the payment of the bill and costs.

The Route of Procession.—As there has been some misunderstanding as to the route over which the procession will pass to-night, we publish it in our local and advertising columns this morning. The followining is the route: Countermarch on Penn to Morris street, Morris to Liberty, down Liberty to Smithfield, Smithfield to Fourth, Fourth to Ross, Ross to Pennsylvania avenue, Pennsylvania avenue to Pride, Pride to Colwell, Colwell to Fulton, Fulton to Wylie, Wylie to Fifth avenue, down Fifth avenue to Liberty street and dismiss.

Alleged Larceny.—About six months ago Casper Hentzel, of Allegheny, lost several hogs from his premises. Several days ago while in the neighborhood of Jacob Martin, in another part of the city, he alleges that he discovered the hogs in Martin's yard. He claimed the property, but Martin stated that he had bought them from another man, and refused to give them up. Hentzel came to the Mayor's office on Tuesday and made information against Martin for larceny, who was arrested yesterday and held for a hearing to-day.

In Search of His Mother.—Kepner Morrison a youth about seventeen years of age, arrived in Allegheny on Tuesday evening in search of his mother. He states that he came from Peoria county, Illinois in response to a letter written by his mother who is married to Mr. Campbell of Allegheny. The letter requested him to come to Allegheny, but failed to designate the residence of his parent, and he is consequently unable to find her. He is at present stopping at the Mayor's office, where any information which will aid him in his search will be thankfully received.

Taken Back.—Wm. M. Smith, an inmate of the Allegheny Orphan Asylum, was indentured some months ago to a farmer living about twelve miles out on the Butler plank road. He returned to his step-mother, residing in the Third ward, Allegheny, a few days since, stating that the man had abused and ill-treated him to such an extent as to render it impossible for him to stay longer. Yesterday, by authority of the managers of the Orphan Asylum, the boy was arrested and remanded back to the Institution, to be taken care of until he is of the proper age to be dismissed.

In Trouble Again.—Christian Farr made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Ed. McGann with stealing a horse and buck wagon. It appears that Mr. Farr, who was riding in the wagon having some business to attend to on Liberty street, hitched his horse to a post and went into a store, and during his absence McGann came along and being under the influence of liquor, appropriated the horse and wagon, and after driving around the city for some time left the "turnout" standing in front of the Rush House. A warrant was issued for the arrest of McGann.

Court adjourned until nine o'clock this morning.

U. S. District Court—Judge McCandless.

On the opening of the Court yesterday morning, the Grand Jury presented a true bill against Alexander D. Lowrie, indicted for illegal distilling.

On motion of R. B. Roberts, Esq., the Marshal was directed to pay to the claimants the proceeds of the sales in the cases of the United States vs. 130 barrels cut and dry tobacco, and the United States vs. 50 barrels cut and dry tobacco, claimed by J. K. Taylor.

The first case called up this morning was that of the United States vs. the stills and other property of Robert Woods & Co. The defendants did business at 315 Liberty street, and it is alleged that Mr. Keyser, Revenue Inspector, found a still upon the premises which was used in illicit distilling. District Attorney Carnahan appeared for the United States and John H. Hampton and W. D. Moore, Esqs., for the defense. The case is still on trial.

In the bankruptcy branch Judge M'Candless delivered an opinion on the question raised by H. M. Bole, assignee of Robert Hervey, a bankrupt. The assignee asked that Adam Reineman, a creditor, be restrained from further proceeding in an action of scire facias upon a mortgage, brought against Hervey, at No. 693, April term, 1868, in the District Court of Allegheny county, and a rule was granted on Reineman, to show cause why such an order should not be made. It was claimed by the assignee that the creditor had a mortgage on the lands comprising the entire estate of the bankrupt, and at a meeting of the creditors, had proved his claim before the Register. It was further claimed that by thus proving the claim, Reineman wholly relinquished the lien of his mortgage upon the estate, and could not, therefore, maintain any action at law or in equity for the recovery of the amount, being only entitled to participate equally with the other creditors of the bankrupt in the distribution of the assets belonging to his estate. In the answer to the petition, Reineman claimed that under the law he was entitled to the full amount of the mortgage, and had a right to prove his claim before the Register for the balance due after the lands mortgaged had been exhausted. This, he claimed, was all he had done. Judge McCandless, in delivering the opinion on the question raised, held that "it is clear that the proof of debt in this case was not a release of the mortgage." The prayer of the petitioner, H. M. Bole, assignee, was therefore refused, and the rule to show cause discharged.

Petitions for final discharge in bankruptcy were filed by Joseph C. Robinson, of Washington county; George Smith, Bradford county; Hassan Billings, Wyoming county; Alonzo E. Benjamin, Bradford county; Isaac H. Lacey, Wyoming county; Riley Sickler, Wyoming county. The usual orders were made in each case.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, Judge Mellon on the bench. The following business was transacted:

ALLEGED MISDEMEANOR.

The first case taken up was that of Adam K. Stemler, indicted for misdemeanor under the livery stable act. It was alleged that in July last defendant hired a horse from Messrs. Stewart & Duncan, of Allegheny, and drove to Saxonburg, Butler county. The day was very warm, and it was alleged that the defendant abused the animal by over driving, from the effects of which it died. Defense claimed that the horse died from natural causes. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, and directed prosecutor, Chas. Stewart, to pay the costs.

ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

Patrick Burke, of the Sixth ward, Pittsburgh, plead guilty to three indictments for illegal liquor selling, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $120 and costs.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

W. D. Moore, Esq., entered a motion for a new trial in the case of Charles Golden, convicted on the 15th inst. of assault and battery and indecent assault on the person of Mrs. Diana Woods, at Soho.

A CONTINUANCE.

In the case of Wm. Ormsby, indicted for perjury, an affidavit was presented by R. B. Parkinson, Esq., asking for a continuance on the part of the defense. The defendant's affidavit set forth that a material and important witness was absent. The case was continued and bail was increased to $10,000.

FORCIBLE ENTRY.

The next case taken up was that of John Chess, indicted for forcible entry. Levi Johnson, colored, testified that on the 6th of July last defendant came into his barber shop, in Allegheny, and made a demand for money. On being refused he forcibly ejected him from the shop, and then levied on the contents. The prosecutor also alleged that Chess drew a revolver and presented it in a threatening manner. The defense claimed that the levy was made in a legal manner, and that the prosecutor had made threats of what he would do against Chess if he made the levy. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the prosecutor pay the costs.

On motion of R. S. Morrison, Esq., John Jackson, committed to jail for thirty days on a charge of disorderly conduct by Alderman Johns, was discharged on the ground that the commitment was defective.

There being no further business ready, Court adjourned till nine o'clock this morning.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Yesterday evening a German, whose name we were unable to learn, made his appearance at the horse market and offered for sale two horses at a very low price. The auctioneer refused to purchase them, but he finally disposed of them to some one present for a small sum of money. His anxiety to part with the horses at such a reduced price created a suspicion that he had stolen them, and an officer was sent for and informed of the circumstances, when he took the German into custody. While on the way to the lock-up the prisoner broke loose from his captor and ran like a "quarter horse" up Irwin street to Liberty and then up Liberty toward the Union Depot, with the officer in hot pursuit. The dutchman was rapidly gaining on his pursuer, and doubtless would have affected his escape had he not been intercepted by a man coming down the street, who, seeing him in full flight, and the officer, accompanied by a crowd of boys, in pursuit, took hold of him and held him until the officer arrived. He was then conducted to the watch-house and locked up to await a hearing.

"Daniel in Babylon,"

Was the subject chosen by Rev. William Morley Punshon, M. A., for his lecture in the Keystone Rink last evening. The great fame of the lecturer as an eloquent writer, finished elocutionist, and representative of the highest style of English oratory, was sufficient to attract on the occasion an audience of fully two thousand persons from among the most intelligent and appreciative of our lecture-going community. The chief characteristics, as developed in his effort last night, snd which mark him as the orator, were, his eminently remarkable power of graphic description, his rich, poetic and sometimes gorgeous language and his voice, which although somewhat harsh at first, soon softens and becomes clear, ringing and full of melody. He was introduced at eight o'clock by Rev. John Williams, D.D., of the Pittsburgh Conference, and almost from the time the first words fell from his lips until the close of the lecture, about an hour and a quarter, the thoughts, feelings and attention of his hearers seemed to be borne irresistibly along as it were on a tide-wave of rare and wonderful eloquence.

In the strict sense of the term it could hardly be called a lecture—it was more a brilliant word-portraiture of the subject. Taking the Holy Prophet and touching in beautiful yet truthful coloring here a little and there a little of his life and character, the impression was finally left upon the mental canvass of a surpassing lovely picture of manly piety, courtesy, courage and wisdom.

It would be impossible in the space allotted to a newspaper notice to give any extracts from his production without marring the symmetry of the whole, and we therefore refrain from alluding to any save one from among the many choice passages which were scattered here and there and over which the genius of composition and eloquence seemed to have breathed its richest enchantment. The description of the old Prophet, at prayer, given in the closing peroration is certainly one of the finest specimens of word painting in the English language, an opinion which we think is heartily coincided in by those who listened with breathless attention, as it came from the lips of the masterly elocutionist.

The lecture, taken altogether, was a decided success, and sustained the reputation of the great man, and we, along with about two thousand others, have to thank the energetic gentlemen by whose exertions we were afforded the rare pleasure of hearing one of the finest of living orators.

Mr. Punshon delivers his second lecture at the same place this evening. His subject is "Macaulay." The character and genius of one of England's greatest historians and statesmen, portrayed by one of her most renowned and gifted lecturers, should be sufficient, and will undoubtedly secure a large and appreciative audience.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—One of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the season assembled at the Opera House last night to see Mr. Owens in "Self." The piece was most admirably rendered, not alone by Mr. Owens, who is always unexceptionable, but with perhaps a single exception by the entire cast. Miss Dargon, in the role of Mrs. Apex, was at times brilliant, and elicited the highest admiration from the audience. To-night the programme will be changed, and instead of "Self," "Paul Pry" and "The Happiest Days of My Life," with Mr. Owens in both pieces, will constitute the evening's entertainment.

MUSEUM.—Major Burnell continues to add new attractions to his Museum, the latest of which is a child with four legs. There are a number of marvelously wonderful things to be seen there, and we would advise our friends to take their children to Franklin Hall to see the sights. It is open day and evening.

Slight Fire.

A slight commotion was created about half-past two o'clock yesterday, by a little conflagration in the Diamond, near Diamond alley. The work of laying the Nicolson pavement on Diamond alley, from Wood street to the Diamond, is in progress, and the apparatus for melting the tar, which is situated near the mouth of the alley, in the Diamond, being full of tar and a large fire under it, the tar ran out into the fire and ignited. The flames for a time threatened to spread to the adjacent buildings, and doubtless would have done so but for the prompt appearance of the firemen on the ground, who, in a few moments, made it too damp for fire in that immediate neighborhood. No damage was done beyond the burning of a small quantity of tar.

Alleged Highway Robbery.

John Anderson made information yesterday, before Alderman McMasters, against Leon Jones and Owen McGovern for assault and battery and highway robbery. He states that while returning from work on Saturday evening last, in Temperanceville, the defendants met him in a sequestered part of the road, and, after knocking him down, took fifteen or sixteen dollars from his pocket and attempted to take his watch, but only succeeded in breaking the chain, he, after a desperate struggle, retaining possession of the time piece. The attack is alleged to have been made about six o'clock in the evening. Jones gave bail for a hearing and a warrant was issued for the arrest of McGovern.

Contract Awarded.

At a recent meeting of the Street Committee the contract for the construction of the Nicolson pavement on Sixth, formerly St. Clair street, was awarded to Messrs. Hastings & O'Neille, at three dollars and twenty-five cents per yard. The contract specifies that the pavement shall have a double flooring of inch boards, and that the strips between the blocks shall be of a uniform thickness of three-fourths of an inch. The latter specification will undoubtedly be an improvement upon the pavement as it will be more compact and solid than that formerly constructed in this city.

At a Meeting of the Y. M. C. A., of Allegheny City, held Tuesday evening, October 20th., at their rooms, corner of Beaver avenue and Locust street, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. S. Taylor; Vice President, Frank Woods; Secretary, E. Lindsay; Treasurer, Daniel C. Hamilton. The rooms are open every evening, also prayer meeting every Sabbath afternoon at four o'clock, all are cordially invited.

Dabbs in the photographic material and picture frame business, No. 24, Fifth avenue. These gentlemen are well and favorably known to the community, and we bespeak for them that large share of public patronage they are so worthy of receiving.

Who Will Be Governor—A Glance at State Politics.

Who will be Governor? This is the question now agitating the upper circle of politicians throughout the State of Pennsylvania. There are numerous aspirants, every one of whom imagine they have special claims to the Gubernatorial chair. One of the most pretentious comes from this end of the State, and his friends are sanguine they can secure for him the Republican nomination next spring. He has been in Harrisburg for some time, and of course has knowledge of how the political wires are manipulated. In this rests his confidence and his strength. Another gentleman from Chester county, whose popularity lies in his active battle against the word "white" in the Constitution, thinks the elevation properly belongs to him. But after surveying the political horizon from the Beaver to the Delaware, we feel confident that John W. Geary will be re-elected by a majority commensurate with his ability and popularity.

With a military reputation untarnished by a single cruel act, and an administration of unmistakable purity, we know not where the Republican party can secure a candidate more certain of success. We are confident that neither from Allegheny or Chester can his equal be secured, and therefore is it we are assured of his triumphant nomination and election. This settles conclusively the query "Who will be Governor."—Evening Mail.

EXPLANATION.—Commonwealth vs. B. T. Campbell, editor of the Evening Mail, charge libel. (Two cases.)

Grant Hussars.

A meeting of the officers of this mounted organization was held at the headquarters, 91 Grant street, last evening.

On motion, Resolved, That the office of Junior Major is vacant; and that an election be had to fill the vacancy.

Capt. Adams, Dunseath and Hilberry were nominated, and the two former declining, Capt. Hilberry was unanimously elected.

The battalions were assigned as follows: First Battalion, Major McFarren, commanding—Company A, Capt. Dunseath; Company B, Capt. Adams; Company C, Capt. Gross; Company H, Capt. Metzgar.

Second Battalion, Major Hilberry commanding—Company E, Capt Grenet; Company F, Capt. Patterson; Company G, Capt. Leevy.

On motion, a committee, consisting of Messrs. M'Farren and Dunseath, was appointed to receive from Capt. M'Callum, former Quartermaster, his accounts and moneys, and transfer them to Lieutenant Johnson, Quartermaster.

A proposition to turn out dismounted was discussed and negatived for to-morrow's parade, though favorably considered as to future parades.

The Hussars form on the south side of Liberty street, with the right resting on Marbury.

MORTGAGES.

The same day six mortgages were filed of record.

English Opera.

The American people owe more to Mrs. Bernard, formerly Miss Caroline Riching's, than they can well re-pay. She has brought English Opera up to as high a standard as Italian, she has worked long and earnestly against all sorts of opposition, and it is owing to her perseverance and talent that we now have in this country an English Opera troupe in many ways superior to any foreign one this side of the Atlantic; and we are glad to be able to announce to our readers the interesting fact that the Riching's Troupe will soon be in Pittsburgh and will appear for the first time this season at the Academy of Music, on Tuesday evening November 3d. During their stay they will appear in the following favorite operas: Tuesday, Martha; Wednesday, The Bohemian Girl; Thursday, Crispino; Friday, Fra Diavolo; Saturday, Traviata. We believe that Traviata and Crispino have never been performed in English in this city. Knowing what favorites they are we predict an immense success for the troupe on its re-appearance.

Queensware, Bristol Ware, &c.

The manufacture of pottery in this neighborhood has assumed quite an importance among the mercantile statistics of the city, and instead of directing their patronage east for such articles, our merchants confine their patronage to the extensive Keystone Pottery. This establishment, owned and controlled by Messrs. S. M. Kier & Co., has rapidly made inroad to public favor, and is destined ere long to monopolize a vast portion of the entire western trade. The pottery is first class in all its departments, and as none but first-class skilled workmen are employed and the best material used, the queensware, Bristol ware, &c., turned out, is not only equal but superior to most found in other markets, while the prices at which sold are very reasonable. Grocers and others find it a matter of great economy to bestow their orders on Messrs. S. M. Kier & Co. Office and warehouse, No. 303 Liberty street.

Church Improvements

The magnificent edifice in course of erection on Union avenue, Allegheny, by Dr. Pressly's congregation, is rapidly approaching completion. The structure is under roof, and the brick work is finished with the exception of a few feet, yet to be added to the towers. It is expected that the lecture-room will be ready for occupancy during the present season.

Dr. Sproul's congregation have also in course of erection a splendid edifice on the corner of Strawberry alley and Sandusky street. The walls have been finished to the proper height, and the roof is being put on. They are not certain whether their building will be ready for occupancy before the first of next year, but the work is being pushed forward rapidly.

Attention.—The Second Ward Grant Club, every member, is expected to be at Wilkins Hall, Fourth avenue, at 6:45 sharp this (Thursday) evening, in full uniform. By order of THOS. H. PHELPS, Capt.

First Class Dwelling and Twenty-One Lots.—This afternoon at 2 o'clock, the first-class dwelling in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, No. 125 Rebecca street, will be sold on the premises, by A. McIlwaine, auctioneer. Also twenty-one handsome lots adjoining, which front on Rebecca and Ridge streets. See Auction advertisement.

The Decorations To-night.

The procession to-night will, doubtless, be one of the largest and grandest demonstrations of the campaign, and the decorations along the line of the procession should be in keeping with the affair. The citizens of Allegheny, at the recent procession in that city, spared neither pains nor expense in their preparations, and the decorations far exceeded those in this city at our former demonstration; but if the weather should continue favorable, as it in all probability will, we have no doubt but the display along the route of procession to-night will be the most dazzling and brilliant ever witnessed in this or any other city west of the mountains. We have the facilities, and we know there is an inclination to make a grand display. This is perhaps the last grand torchlight procession we will have in this city during the campaign, and our friends should make it a brilliant one. To all those in quest of flags, lanterns, banners, and articles for decorating their houses, or campaign goods of any description, we would say that Pittock, opposite the Postoffice, has a full supply, and is selling as cheap as the cheapest.

Stained Glass.

Among the remarkable improvements in American manufactures nothing is more noteworthy than the great stride which has been made within the last few years in the business of staining and enameling glass. Up to a recent date the consumer has depended, in a large measure, upon the English manufacturer. As a matter of course, the carriage alone, leaving out the dealer's and manufacturer's profits, imposed a large tax on the consumer; sufficient, indeed, to justify the establishment of the business in our own country. Glass staining, however, to be conducted properly, should be combined with glass making. The glass stainer who depends upon the glass manufacturer for his material, is limited in his operations, and necessarily requires more time to complete his work. The manufacturer, on the other hand, has extraordinary facilities for staining and enameling unlimited quantities in a fraction of time required by the glass stainer. Page, Zellers & Duff, No. 8 Wood street, may be termed the pioneers of the new movement. They have demonstrated the fact that an article in every way equal to English stained glass can be made at rates favorable to the consumer. They are now prepared to fill orders for every style of plain white, chaste and elaborate designed stained and enameled glass, for public and private buildings, elegant transoms, side lights, transoms for business houses, with name of firm and number of street, &c. NEW YORK, July 1st, 1868.

DEAR SIR:—In your paper of last week you or one of your correspondents say that Dr. Drake is not the originator of the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS, and that they were manufactured and sold by one Pedro Martelle, an old Spaniard, in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as every old sea captain can testify. Now, sir, I can certify to the above as being true, for I have followed the sea for over forty years, most of the time doing business with the West Indies. These same Bitters, differently put up and named, were brought to my notice on my first trip to the Island of St. Croix for a cargo of rum, and for years and years after, my ship's stores were never without them. I always supplied my family and many of my neighbors with them, and can truly say a better Bitters and Tonic is not made in all the world.

Yours, truly,
THSTF. CAPT. HENRY WENTZ.
